Leigh On Sea

BREWERY

Located just over 3 miles from Southend Airport, the Leigh On Sea Brewery was conceived in 2016 when brewers Ian Rydings and Mark Springham who had some eighty odd years of ale drinking under their belts, agreed they knew a thing or two about beer and noted the absence of a brewery in Leigh on Sea, or indeed in Southend

Legra Pale ✓ 3.8% - 500ml | 5.25

A light, fresh and sessionable golden ale. Single hopped, with lashings of Citra hops for a clean citrus flavour

Six Little Ships ✓ 4.2% - 500ml | 5.25

Our most traditional beer – a British best bitter, hopped with suitably titled seafaring hops; Admiral and Columbus

Cockle Row Spit ✓ 5.6% - 500ml | 5.25

Strong and full flavoured with hops from the Czech Republic and the USA. A great accompaniment to curries and other spicy foods

Our London

VODKA

Prepared in a small local distillery in London, using only local ingredients found near the city. It's fruity aromas present floral and sweet tones with spices and herbs in the background

37.5% - 25ml | 4.75

GIN

Nicholas Culpeper London Dry Gin

Made in the world's first ever airport gin distillery, this gin uses more than twice the quantity of botanicals typically found in the spirit. An initial hit of juniper and lemongrass followed by sweet cassia and cardamom. After sipping there's light floral notes from the coriander seeds and cloves. The complex and subtle combination of liquorice and angelica root linger in the mouth

40% - 25ml | 4.75

City of London Gin

This Gin is carefully distilled at City of London distillery and is a connoisseur's London Dry Gin. It is adored for its fine balance of juniper berries, angelica, licorice and coriander seeds. There's also fresh orange, lemon and pink grapefruit added to give the gin its distinctive zesty notes

40% - 25ml | 4.75

Hayman's London Dry Gin

Hayman's London Dry Gin is twice awarded with a golden medal and distilled from a family recipe of 10 botanicals. With its unmistakable classical flavours of slight juniper with a hint of citrus, it is perfect with tonic and a lemon slice

40% - 25ml | 4.75
